July 26 - 67

JAMES SEGESTA
[illegible] CHANDLER BLVD.
[illegible]

I heard your WCAU broadcast Wednesday Night and noted what you said about the N.Y. Times write up of your latest book.

On March 21st 1967, "in a moment of disfair", I wrote the enclosed letter to the Times. the Editor replied that he did not desire to publish it, which is understandable. But it may have had some small impact so that they decided to give your latest book widespread publicity by giving it 43 inches of newspace.

I received your latest book. Send me all the others as they are published.

I have a feeling that the whole thing is about to explode. the Det Free Press had already published an editorial down-grading Kennedy. It is the first step in turning on the hate campaign so when the thing explodes, they can take the position, Kennedy was a traitor and it was necessary to liquidate him. James Segesta